Dorotea Agustin Mendoza is the Secretary General of Gabriela Network USA (GABNet). She has been with the organization since 1991. Dorotea lectures, gives presentations, and leads teach-ins throughout North America about issues faced by the women in the Philippines. She has been frequently quoted in NYC/NJ publications: The Filipino Express and Philippine News; published in KAwomenan Quarterly News, and is also founder of the Kataga Writers Collective.

Dr. Ligaya Lindio-McGovern has done extensive research and writing to advance Philippine concerns and Filipino women’s human rights. She has actively worked on issues including Filipino Peasant Women, Migrant workers, labor exportation and globalization, Philippine Women’s movements, and the impact of militarization and foreign debt on Filipino women. Formerly a director of women’s studies, she is currently Associate Professor of Sociology at Indiana University. Her first book, published in 1997 by Pennsylvania Press, was titled Filipino Peasant Women Exploitation and Resistance.
